Memento Booklet

The Class of 2020 will go down in history as the one that prevailed and inspired like no other. While the school year presented significant challenges due to the COVID-19 pandemic impact, it did not stop the hardworking students featured in this Memento from earning their high school diploma and pursuing a post-secondary education. We are proud to provide each of them with the education essentials they will need to begin their college journey through our Trunk Scholarships. We hope this Memento will serve as a keepsake to cherish and celebrate the accomplishments of these extraordinary students for years to come.

ABOUT THE TRUNK SCHOLARSHIPS

The Annual Revie Sorey Trunk Scholarships are an important extension of Ada S. McKinley's acclaimed College Preparation & Placement Program that has placed more than 70,000 youth in more than 400 colleges and universities throughout the United States since the 1960's. Named in honor of former Ada S. McKinley division director and Chicago Bear Revie Sorey who started the program over a decade ago, the Trunk Scholarships provide our college-bound awardees with the living and learning essentials first-year students need to begin their college journey. Over the past 12 years, each trunk has been filled with the things they need to get settled into their dorm rooms (desk supplies, bedding and linens, and other necessities).

2020 MODIFICATIONS

Prompted by the COVID-19 pandemic impact and colleges/universities anticipating remote learning status for an extended period, the program was modified for 2020. We did not host a celebratory event due to Illinois Department of Public Health guidelines and recommendations, however, we remained committed to providing trunks to our college-bound students. Distribution of trunks is being conducted with the need for social distancing in mind, and each trunk is filled with distance learning tools to support their ability to remain safe and academically connected during the COVID-19 pandemic.

I loathe the public transportation. The cramped seating, shrills of children, and laggard movement of a 40,000-pound vehicle feels unpleasant to me. Trying to reach my destination, but a victim to constant halts by other passengers who seem oblivious to my internal dilemma. Do they understand that I feel differently from them? Do they understand that my “social battery” simply can’t compete with theirs? This is life with social anxiety. To others, a minor difficulty, but to me, a crucial aspect of daily life.

My anxiety temporarily halted my dreams of being an accountant due to the emphasis on communicating with others. I felt that hope was lost, and I should just give up - until, I truly began to listen to what my body was saying. This changed my outlook. My symptoms only flared when I was engulfed in negative situations or surrounded by individuals who didn’t serve my best interests, like a bully.

Now knowing my triggers, I was able to remove myself from environments that didn’t help me grow. Instead of cowering away from raising my hand in class, I participated with outstretched fingers, booming voice, and a bright smile. I volunteered to be a leader at school and beyond. Through guiding others and taking chances, my anxiety began to diminish. I gained confidence in myself when speaking, and took leadership roles in organizations that I participated in. I served as chairwoman in my social justice group, Southside Together Organizing for Power, and interned at the Obama Foundation through a program called Urban Alliance.

Going to college will be the change that I need, so I know that I will be successful in my endeavors. This is what social anxiety tried to tell me wasn’t possible. Knowing this, I will always try my hardest, and follow my passion to become the unstoppable woman that I was meant to be. Majoring in Finance will be the catalyst to accomplishing my goals because its foundation is firmly set in ingenuity. Studying finance will be the launchpad for me to complete my goals and pull my single-parent family out of poverty.

Obtaining a post-secondary education is essential to me because I am a life long learner, and education has encompassed my life to make it better. Before I was born into the world, education, child development, and learning were my soundtrack. My mom was 8 months pregnant with me but determined to complete her school practicum at Ada S. McKinley Child Development Center in 2002. Little did she know that she found a place to complete her education and start my education in one.

At six weeks old I attended the facility and it provided me a strong educational foundation. I learned how to use sign language before I could talk. I learned to play with others, believe in myself, sing, dance and was even potty trained in this nurturing environment. It was at Ada S. McKinley that I had a clear understanding of how important education was to me and how it would be a catalyst to propel me into the field of education later in life.

Throughout my school career, I held on to my educational foundation and remembered to believe in myself when things got rough. I have relied on my education to reach the sky and achieve things beyond my years. I am now an honor student in high school, a certified pharmacy tech, and an after school teacher who has been accepted into her dream college, Howard University. I plan to major in child development and obtaining a post-secondary education in this field. It will definitely bring my life full circle and help me achieve ALL of my goals and that is important to me.

Obtaining a post-secondary education is important to me because I will be the first woman in my family to graduate high school and go to college. All my life, I've always wanted to go to college and break the curse that my family has. I am proud that I am able to do so.

The people who inspired me along the way are my great-grandmother. My grandmother was also a graduate of Phillips. She couldn't go to college because she was married and had children at the age of 21. My grandmother is my biggest supporter and she motivated me to keep pushing and obtain my goal. I owe her everything because, without her, I will not graduate this year, let alone going to college.

I want to major in criminal justice at Jackson State University to become a criminal defense lawyer so that I can come back to my hometown of Chicago and change the criminal justice system here. My career path was driven by my father, who died when I was 8 years old due to gun violence. His case is unsolved and it is very frustrating for me. There are a lot of unsolved murders in Chicago and I want that to stop. Social justice is so important to me because I want the world to change for the better; especially the city that I was born and raised in. This may be a hard task but I believe that it is for the betterment of the city.

Dear Friends:

On behalf of the City of Chicago, I am honored to congratulate this year's Ada S. McKinley Community Services, Inc. Annual Revie Sorey Trunk Scholarship recipients.

Established in 1919 by Ada Sophia McKinley, Ada S. McKinley Community Services, Inc. has worked to educate, employ, and empower people. The Revie Sorey Trunk Scholarship is a vital part Ada S. McKinley's College Preparation & Placement Program that has placed more than 70,000 young people in over 400 colleges and universities around the country. Over the past 12 years, the Trunk Scholarships have provided the college-bound students with trunks filled with the school supplies and living essentials needed to begin their college journey. This year's trunk will also include distance learning tools to keep students safe during the COVID-19 pandemic.

I commend Ada S. McKinley for their ongoing efforts to uplift and inspire our young people, and I congratulate all of this year's recipients as you begin the next steps in your education. Best wishes for continued success.

Sincerely,

July 24, 2020

Dear 2020 Revie Sorey Trunk Scholarship Awardees:

I want to offer my congratulations on your selection as a 2020 Ada S. McKinley Revie Sorey Trunk Scholarship recipient. In a year that has been particularly difficult with the COVID-19 pandemic, the fact you've proven yourself worthy of this scholarship shows that you are determined to let nothing stand in your way.

The founding mission of empowering, educating, and employing people to change lives and strengthen communities is as strong today – 101 years later – as when Ada Sophia McKinley founded the organization as a settlement house in 1919 to assist WWI veterans and Black Americans migrating from the South.

I am certain this achievement won't be your last on your journey of education and enlightenment. Remember: learning should be a life-long experience. There's much to learn in a classroom, certainly, but never underestimate the value of continuing to challenge yourself and your ideas long after graduation. I encourage you to continue pursuing your talents and have no doubt that you will continue to achieve great things. As your governor, I am deeply proud of the person you are becoming – and it is my hope that you are, too.

Congratulations again on this remarkable achievement. On behalf of the people of Illinois, I offer my best wishes for continued success in all your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

2020 Revie Sorey Trunk Scholarships Letter from the CEO

July 24, 2020

On behalf of Ada S. McKinley Community Services, Inc., our Board of Directors and staff, I am proud to congratulate this year's Revie Sorey Trunk Scholarship recipients!

The Class of 2020 will go down in history as unparalleled and undefeated. Throughout the uncertainty and inconveniences caused by the COVID-19 pandemic impact during the school year, you continued to put in the work and added push required to earn your high school diploma and prepare yourselves for college. It can be an intimidating process even in the most ideal of situations, and you made it happen during one of the most difficult times in the history of our world. Nothing can stop you now!

Every college-bound student being honored through the Trunk Scholarships this year is exemplary of the legacy of resilience and success our organization represents. Ada Sophia McKinley founded our agency amid the Spanish Flu pandemic (January 1918 to December 1920) and the Chicago Race Riot of 1919. We were initially founded as a settlement house to assist Black World I veterans and their families migrating from the South. Today, as we face similar circumstances with the COVID-19 pandemic along with civil unrest and protests to end systemic racism, you have illustrated that you too can make a positive impact in your community, and change it for the better.

Your perseverance and hard work have inspired many across the world and will be remembered for generations to come. You have provided hope and confidence in a better future. We are proud to support and cheer you on!

I would also like to give special thanks to every sponsor and contributor to our Trunk Scholarship Fund during this extraordinary year. Through your support of this community effort, you have helped us provide students with the education essentials they need to begin their college journey. Your generosity serves as encouragement and confirmation that the Class of 2020 can continue to be successful in furthering their education regardless of any obstacles. Thank you for believing in and supporting our students.

Onward and upward, and congratulations to the class of 2020!

2020 Revie Sorey Trunk Scholarships Message from the Educational Services Director

The Educational Services staff and I extend heartfelt congratulations to McKinley's Class of 2020, future college graduates! Our team and others who poured into you, supported, uplifted, encouraged, and nurtured you are in awe of you at this unprecedented moment in time. We are in awe at the amount of resilience, courage, and pure strength you've shown as you willed yourselves to finish what you started, not give up no matter how challenging and uncertain the road that lies ahead. We are in awe of the greatness that you emit as you stood at the doorstep of achievement and emphatically claimed it as your own. We are in awe of the fact that you did not allow circumstances to define you. Instead, you willfully chose to define your circumstance. You decided to stare adversity squarely in the eye and to rise, speak out, and preserve. And for that precious gift of strength, grit, and undeniable courage that you shared with us while we witnessed you emerge as visionaries and leaders, we thank you. Because of you, I am not only hopeful but confident that you, the Class of 2020, will change your communities and the world while positively and proudly impacting everyone you encounter in the process.

As you move forward in your lives, I challenge you to not just be content with where you are today but to continue pursuing your dreams. I challenge you to continue to lead, continue to be transformative, and continue not to allow anything to stifle your growth. I challenge you to walk in your greatness, to own it, and let it serve as guiding light in times of uncertainty. Remember that "you are braver than you believe, stronger than you seem, and smarter than you think." —A.A. Milne

Congratulations, Class of 2020! May you continue to achieve success throughout your journey in pursuing post-secondary education and in the realization of your dreams.

2020 Revie Sorey Trunk Scholarships Revie Sorey the Trailblazer

Revie Sorey the Trailblazer

Former Ada S. McKinley Educational Services Director and Chicago Bear

Ada S. McKinley is proud to carry out the vision of Revie Sorey through Trunk Scholarships. Building community partnerships to assist students in pursuing a college education proved to be one of the biggest plays of the former Chicago Bear.

Twelve years ago, Revie Sorey formed the Ada S. McKinley Education Committee and began his quest to support college-bound students through Trunk Scholarships with the help of his long-time family and friend Anita Efron. Thanks to his trailblazing vision, hundreds of students have been awarded the living and learning essentials they need to focus on their education and adjust to their first year in college. We are grateful for his leadership and commitment to making a significant impact during a critical turning point in their lives.

Thanks to our sponsors!

We truly appreciate the generous sponsors of our 2020 Revie Sorey Trunk Scholarships! Moving on to college can be an intimidating and overwhelming process, particularly for the many first-generation students we serve.

There are now added pressures due to the COVID-19 pandemic impact. Through your support of this community effort, you have provided valuable encouragement and confirmation they can continue to be successful in obtaining a postsecondary education regardless of any obstacles.

Thank you for believing in and supporting our students!
